“North Carolina Lions Hall of Fame”

Purpose: The mission of the North Carolina Lions Hall of Fame is: “to recognize and honor the State’s most outstanding Lions for their extraordinary accomplishments on the Club, District, State, and/or, the NC Lions Inc. levels.”

Criteria: Nominees may be living or deceased. The nominee must have had at least ten (10) years of service in North Carolina if living, or deceased for at least five (5) years, unless death occurs in the year the candidate was being considered for a living Hall of Fame Award. International Officers and their spouses will automatically be inducted when their active term in office is completed.

Who Decides: The Council of Governors. All living North Carolina Lions Hall of Fame recipients will serve as a resource to the Council of Governors, in the nomination process, when requested.

Nominations/Number Chosen: Any District may nominate and submit a resume of one (1) living and one (1) deceased Lion each year. From the nominations submitted, the Council of Governors shall select up to two (2) living and up to three (3) deceased Lions for induction into the North Carolina Lions Hall of Fame. Submissions should include pertinent information as outlined on the relevant Nomination Form. The deadline for submission by the respective District Governor is January 31st so that the State Council of Governors may decide on the inductees at the February Council Meeting.

Induction/Awards Presentation: Honorees will be inducted or posthumously announced at the District Governor’s Banquet during the N.C. Lion’s State Convention. For the living inductee, the presentation will be made by the by the Council Chairperson assisted by the recipient’s District Governor. For the deceased inductee, the presentation will be made by the Council Chairperson and the appropriate District governor to the family of the inductee, if present. If the family is not present, the appropriate District Governor will be responsible for making the presentation to the family at the appropriate time and place.

Display of Honorees: Each Honoree’s name, district, and year of induction will be affixed to a permanent plaque and displayed in an appropriate location at Camp Dogwood and may be shown on the North Carolina Lions website.

North Carolina Lions MD-31
State Convention Policy and Procedures

Between

The Council of Governors and the Host Lions Club(s)
(Revised and Approved 2-13-2016)

MD-31 State Convention shall be held the last full weekend of April. Only in an extreme situation can this date be changed by the North Carolina Lions Council of Governors!

Note: Requests for Multiple District Awards and Multiple District Convention Speakers shall be coordinated and endorsed following the appropriate approved protocol: 1. The most current past international president, if there is one. 2. If not, then the current board member, if there is one. 3. If not, then the most current past international director.

This Policy and Procedures defines the responsibilities of the North Carolina Lions Council of Governors (referred to as The Council or Host Council) and the Lions Club(s) which agree to provide the Facilities, leadership and management for a Multiple District State Convention (Referred to as the Host Club).

Normally at their February meeting The Council will designate the Host Club(s), the city and the primary facilities for the State Convention two (2) years in advance (i.e. in February of 2013 the Host Club, city and primary facility for the 2015 State Convention were designated). The Convention Chairperson shall be recommended by the Host Club and appointed by The Council as soon as possible thereafter, and he/she shall work with the State Convention Committee Chairperson.

Prior to the Convention, the Host Club(s) Convention Chairperson shall meet with The Council and present reports as follows:

3.1 At the August meeting of The Council serving as Host Council to the Convention.

3.1.1 A preliminary site report will be made.

3.1.2 A preliminary budget will be submitted for approval.

3.1.3 A Progress report detailing the planning to date will be made.

3.1.4 State Council will appoint Chairpersons for the required Convention Committees: Credentials, Resolutions, Constitution & By-Laws, Attendance, Elections, Rules, Tail Twisters, and Sergeant at Arms.

3.2 At the November meeting of the Host Council.

3.2.1 Submit a preliminary agenda for the entire Convention for updating and approving. This agenda shall be reviewed and approved in its entirety with copies to the members of The Council.

3.2.2 Make a detailed report on the progress of the planning, noting problems and concerns of the committee.

3.3 At the February meeting of the Host Council, held at the Convention site, the following reports need to be made:

3.3.1 Submit, for final update and approval, an agenda for the entire Convention. This agenda shall be reviewed and approved in its entirety with copies to the members of The Council.

3.3.2 Make a detailed report on the progress of the planning and/or problems and concerns of the committee.

4. The Host Club(s) shall be responsible for the following:

- 4.1 The Host Club(s) shall contract with the designated Convention Hotel and/or other locations to provide the facilities for the annual Lions State Convention. The activities normally requiring facilities are:

4.1.1 Thursday night dinner (does not have to be at the Convention Hotel) which is complimentary for the Host Council, State Secretary-Treasurer, First Vice-District Governors(DGEs), Council Chairperson Elect, International Guests, Past International Officers, International Officer Candidate(s) and spouses or guests (one Guest per Lion). If not at the Convention Hotel, transportation must be provided. Average attendance, approximately forty-two (42) persons. The Thursday night dinner is to be covered in the Convention budget.

4.1.2 Friday night event at the discretion of the Host Council Average attendance 250-275 persons.

4.1.3 Saturday morning breakfast honoring Key Members and featuring Tail Twisters. Average attendance 250-275 persons.

4.1.6 Saturday noon or Sunday morning - A special luncheon or breakfast as designated by the Host Council honoring the Past District Governors. Average attendance 65-80 persons.

4.1.7 Seminars - Provide rooms to accommodate 50-75 persons.

4.1.8 Hospitality Room(s) as designated and provided by the First Vice District Governors (DGEs), per Agenda.

4.1.9 District Governors' Banquet will be held Saturday evening. Average attendance 250-300 persons.

4.1.10 Service of Remembrance will be held Sunday morning. The average attendance is 250 persons.

4.1.11 District Cabinet meetings will be held Sunday morning. This requires one (1) room per District. Currently there are five (5) districts.

4.1.12 General Convention session will be held Sunday morning. Average attendance is 250-300 persons.

4.1.13 Council Chairperson, District Governors and First and Second Vice-District Governors, and State Secretary/Treasurer Elect Receiving Line will be held Sunday at the conclusion of the Convention.

- 4.2 Provide for the official gift for the Honored Guest Speaker. This gift is to be chosen as representative of the area and meeting the desires of the Honored Guest as indicated on his/her individual biographical data sheet. The Council Chairperson as the official host will receive this information from Lions Clubs International.
- 4.3 Compile the Official Program with the assistance of the Host Council.
 - 4.3.1 The Host Club(s) shall make all arrangements as to the printing and distribution of the Official Program. Sale of ads for the program will offset this and other Convention expenses.
 - 4.3.2 Copies of the Official Program shall be provided to the Host Council by April 1st for distribution to dignitaries prior to the Convention.
- 4.4 The Host Club(s) shall make arrangements for all Convention functions, meals and entertainment. At each of the planned functions and / or meetings, the following items shall be provided and in place prior to the start of the function or meeting.
 - 4.4.1 A United States flag, a North Carolina flag and the flag of the home country or state of the Honored Guest.
 - 4.4.2 A reliable sound system appropriate to the occasion.

North Carolina Lion's Web Sites Administration Policy

Using the World Wide Web is strongly encouraged in that it provides the Lions of North Carolina with a powerful tool to convey information quickly and efficiently on a broad range of topics relating to its activities, objectives, policies and programs.

Section 1: Each Web site shall have a clearly defined purpose that supports the mission of the International Association of Lions Clubs, the Lions of North Carolina and its respective districts and local subordinate clubs. The district governor, club president, or designee in accordance with official policies, shall approve the defined purpose and general content of the Web site.

- (a) Use of the name, goodwill, emblem and other logos of the association shall be according to the guidelines established in the by-laws of the International Association of Lions Clubs.
- (b) The Web site must abide by all laws regarding copyrights, trademarks, and other intellectual property.
- (c) Non-copyrighted material, text, clip art, hypertext links, images and sound or video clips may be used only if they directly relate to the association's mission.
- (d) The Web site shall not contain any advertisements or commercial endorsements, except those which the International Association, state, district or club has approved and is deemed appropriate.
- (e) The Web site shall not engage in the electronic sale of merchandise, merchandise commissioned by the International Association, or competing products, without the approval of the association, state, district or subordinate clubs.
- (f) The Web site shall not contain any links direct to any sites that contain material that is not appropriate to the mission of the International association.

Section 2: For the purpose of preventing duplication on the Web, a Web site shall normally be limited only to information for which the establishing organization is responsible.

Section 3: Consistent with other leadership responsibilities for public and internal communication, the decision whether or not to establish a Web site, and to publish appropriate information that supports the mission of the International Association of Lions Clubs, the Lions of North Carolina and its respective districts and local subordinate clubs, falls to the district governor, club president, or designee.

- (a) No individual member may own the rights to a Web site.
- (b) Passwords or other identifying user names shall be maintained by the organization, its respective districts or local subordinate club.
- (c) The Web site should include an email contact address for reaching the person managing the site, so visitors can report any problems or concerns.

Section 4: Editorial control of a Web site's contents shall be the responsibility of the organization.

- (a) The contents of a Web site must be updated at least quarterly and maintained.
- (b) A Web site that no longer provides accurate information about the organization, its leadership, programs or services, shall be discontinued and removed from the World Wide Web within a reasonable period of time.

Section 5: Who is responsible to review the club, district, and state Web sites and make recommendations to the State Council?

- (a) State Council "Information & Technology Committee".
